AMEND Senate Bill No. 2300

House Bill No. 2318***

by adding the following language at the end of Section 20, as amended, which revised the language in § 68-120-101(b)(1):

(A) Notwithstanding this subdivision (b)(1), the standards established pursuant to subsection (a) with respect to one-family and two-family dwellings, do not apply in counties having the following populations, according to the 2000 federal census or any subsequent federal census, nor to municipalities located within such counties:

not less than

nor more than

29,400

29,450

26,700

26,800

unless the governing body of any such county or of a municipality located in any such county adopts a resolution of its governing body to apply such state-wide standards within the jurisdictional boundaries of their respective municipality or county, as appropriate; provided that, any action by the county legislative body concerning the implementation of this subdivision (b)(1)(A) shall be limited to the jurisdictional boundaries outside any municipality located within such county. The presiding officer of the governing body shall notify the state fire marshal of the approval of the resolution.

(B) The governing body of any such county or of a municipality located in any such county which has taken the action pursuant to subdivision(b)(1)(A) is authorized to reverse such action by adopting a resolution to exempt their municipality or county from the application of subsection (a) with respect to one-family and two-family dwellings within the jurisdictional boundaries of the municipality or county, as appropriate; provided that, any action by the county legislative body concerning its actions shall be limited to the jurisdictional boundaries outside any municipality located within such county. The presiding officer of the governing body shall notify the state fire marshal of the approval of the resolution.
